

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

“When He had said this, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him from their sight.”

-Acts of the Apostles

No doubt, for those of you that are attending Mass this weekend on Saturday at 5:00 P.M. or Sunday morning at 8:00 A.M., you might be wondering where the pastor might be? I am spending (at least part of) the weekend with my entire family (U.S. side) at my niece's wedding near the Twin Cities. This is my first niece that is getting married in the Catholic Church. Since my brothers and sisters now reside in four states, it is something special when we can all be together in the same place, at least for a little while. The wedding is a joyful moment in the life of the van de Crommert family, but even more so when we can get a chance to all be together.

I still can remember with such clarity the weekend I took off from college in February, in my senior year at St. John's, to attend my brother's wedding who will now be the father-of-the-bride this weekend. As he and his bride ascended the steps to exchange their vows, rings and promises of a life-time of fidelity, it too was a new chapter in our family of origin. Since we had no other family in this country, it was an adjustment for family life, that now English had to be spoken 100% as the in-laws were here. For a long time it felt more like company had come and not family.

With the next generation stepping forward to enter into marriage and family life, no doubt it will be a time again of reflection and contemplation as our family enters into another new chapter with new in-laws and new last names and more individuals who are strangers, but will become family and shirt-tale relation.

This weekend we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. We celebrate Christ ascending into the clouds to be reunited with His heavenly Father. No doubt, as the disciples watched this miraculous encounter take place, they too realized that they had entered into a “new chapter” as members of the family of God and new fledgling Church of Christ.

Just as in any marriage there can be expected the Paschal Mystery of both joys and sorrows, so too, in the spiritual life. For just as Christ is “wedded” once again to heaven, and the apostles are once again “wedded” to the work of building up the Church, so too, they faced many joys and equally many sorrows that included martyrdom and death.

For many of us, we have ascended and descended the sanctuary steps to receive a vocational sacrament. For many, our next great spiritual ascension is from this life to the hope of life eternal. How important it is then for us to make sound spiritual use of the finite time that we have remaining on the earth to give our heart, our lives, our actions and our very selves to Christ, so that one day we might ascend beyond this earth as well to everlasting life. A Blessed Ascension to you all!

Rev. Paul van de Crommert, Pastor

STEWARDSHIP

We made budget again this week and more than $6,000.00 higher in one week than a year ago! Wow! Thank you so much! Your generosity is amazing and will allow us to possibly take on some needed repair projects this summer in and around the church and school. I am so grateful to all of you that have taken on the “stewardship courage” to use the “electronic giving” as your primary means of stewardship. As you can see by the collection, it makes such a big difference for our weekly support. Again, if you plan to be gone a great deal this summer, electronic giving might be something that you would consider. Our bookkeeper, Jim Theuninck, would be more than happy to help you in this area.

WELCOME VISITING MISSIONARY

Each year, the Diocese of New Ulm welcomes missionaries to each parish to come and speak about the needs of the poorer regions of the Church in this country and around the world. We are pleased to welcome Fr. Anthony Muthu from the Heralds of Good News, out of Barbourville, Kentucky. We are grateful for Father's message and ministry this weekend at Holy Rosary. If you wish to make a direct donation to the work of his community, you may send your check directly to the order at St. Gregory Catholic Church, 329 Sycamore Drive, Barbourville, KY 40906

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

“Try to serve the Lord with all your heart and with all your will. He will always bless you more than you deserve.” -St. Padre Pio

PARISH AUCTION THANK YOU!

What a wonderful and exciting evening we had last Wednesday evening. It felt like the “Antique Road Show”, with the great crowd and so many items. The only difference is that people were buying the items and taking them home for their use and enjoyment!

I want to say a special word of thanks to Jim Theuninck who did so much organization and calling for the cause, as well as to Elaine, our parish secretary who did a superb job getting the word out to the parishes, advertising in the papers, getting out the posters, and helping with all of the last minute details.

I also wish to thank all of the folks who helped last Saturday morning filling up the gym with items. It was backbreaking work and we are most grateful for their behind-the-scenes efforts. I also wish to thank the women who came to price all of the items for the garage sale, the CCW women who brought bars & cookies, Frank & Connie Weber for the meal, Craig Amundson for the beverages, as well as all who served at the auction/garage sale and helped with the clean-up.

It was a fun evening and reminded me of the many fall festivals I worked and helped in organizing and executing. It was a great night of fellowship and fund-raising. God bless you all for being such good sports and helping a great cause! You are great!

BAPTISMAL BLESSINGS

Our prayers and best wishes go out to Jeremiah and Danielle Hess on the occasion of Baptism of their daughter, Freya Isabel, who will be baptized this Sunday here at Holy Rosary. May this sacrament of initiation be the beginning of a life-time relationship with Christ, His Church and the Holy Eucharist. God bless you all!

SPRING COMMUNAL ANOINTING

Holy Rosary Church is planning two spring communal anointing services for our seniors and those who are in a health situation that would benefit from the healing holy oil of the Sacrament of the Sick. The first communal anointing will be held on Thursday, June 4th, during the Mass at 10:15 A.M. at Pathstone care facility (the address of Pathstone is 718 Mound Ave, Mankato, MN 56001.) The second communal anointing will be held on Monday, June 8th, during Mass at 4:00 P.M. and followed by a potluck supper in the church basement at 5:00 P.M. Please plan to attend. The next communal anointing will be later this year in the late fall or early winter!

ANNUAL BLESSING OF THE BIKES – SATURDAY MAY 30TH!

When we have arrived in May we have not only arrived in the spring of the year, but it is also a time to spring on top of your bike. “It is easy as riding a bike” is not always a true statement. Following the 5:00 P.M. Mass, May 30th, I will offer a prayer and bless all the bikes of young and old around 6:00 P.M.

More than 700 people are killed annually in bicycle accidents in the United States alone. This averages to about two Americans dying every day from bicycle accidents! We need to have a blessing (and to wear our helmet) to insure that we will be able to ride our bike for many years to come.

Please plan to park your bikes on the north lawn of the church. Treats will be provided for all who participate! We hope to see you there!!!

We hope you can prioritize the day and come down, thank these folks and to share some food and fellowship.

The CCC is how we share our experience of faith, worship, and witness.

FROM THE MANKATO SERRA CLUB

CHRIST SPOKE OF THE TALENTS each one of us has, talents which must not be buried. Our calling is to take those talents, develop them fully, and then use them in establishing His kingdom on earth. Are you using your talents to fulfill your vocation to service? Are you an active Christian in the parish, at your workplace, and in the home? Take some time today to reflect on how you might use your special talents in the service of the Kingdom.

Pray for Vocations to the priesthood and all religious life. The number of men to be ordained to the priesthood in the United States this year could exceed the number from the previous year by more than 100. If all the men preparing for ordination do in fact receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders this year, the total would be 595. That's a 25% increase over the 477 that were ordained in 2014.

FOR GRADUATING HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS

Students, stay Connected with your Catholic Faith when you go off to college. The NEWMAN CONNECTION High School Outreach Program helps you connect with your local Catholic College Campus Ministry. When students are entered into the NEWMAN CONNECTION database, their information will automatically be sent to the local Catholic Campus Ministry (Newman Center or local Catholic Parish's college youth group when there is not a Newman Center on Campus). The Campus Minister can then reach out and contact the student to invite them to their activities on Campus. This effort has met with great success. Let's keep our students connected to their Catholic Faith during their College years.

If you have a graduating High School Student this year, please get them connected with their Catholic campus ministry by contacting Cathy Ahern, ckahern@charter.net, or Dolores Portz, dolpor@hotmail.com, with your student's name and choice of College/University (with location) that they will be attending this fall. Sponsored by the Mankato Serra Club.
